* Board of Professors.

CONSTITUTION

The Royal College of Music was founded under the Presidency of His late Majesty King Edward VII, then Prince of Wales, and was incorporated by Royal Charter in 1883. The Corporation of the College consists of the President, Vice-Presidents, Council, Director, Board of Professors, Graduates and Donors. The Governing Body is the President and Council, who delegate to the Executive and Finance Committee the general management of the College and the control of its Funds. Annual subscribers of ten pounds and upwards, or contributors of fifty pounds and upwards, become Donors of the College. Annual subscribers of one guinea and upwards are kept informed of the dates of Concerts, Operas and Plays.

THE BUILDING

The College building was a gift of the late Mr. Samson Fox, M.I.C.E. The site was granted by the Royal Commissioners of the Exhibition of 1851, and is held at a nominal ground rent for 999 years. The Inner Entrance Hall was added by the late Lord Palmer of Reading in 1927. There is a large Concert Hall, the organ in which was given to the College by the late Sir Hubert Parry, Director from 1895 to 1918. The Parry Theatre is the Council Memorial to Sir Hubert Parry. Two Common Rooms for students were equipped in 1922 by the late Mr. R. F. McEwen. In 1939 the retiring and dressing rooms were renovated, a cafeteria for students, a dining room for professors and a limited number of practising rooms were added, and the garden was planted. In 1955 a new heating system for the Concert Hall and Theatre was completed.

The Library contains many historical scores, books and a few manuscripts as well as a large working repertory of modern editions. The other manuscripts (about four thousand of them) are now on permanent loan to, and housed in the British Museum. There is a valuable collection of old instruments, of which the greater part was the bequest of the late Sir George Donaldson. There are also other instruments which have been bequeathed from time to time or acquired for the use of students during their time at College. The late Colonel Lionel Benson has left his extensive collection of portraits and music to the College. The late Mr. Arthur Hill gave the portraits in oils which are hung in the Concert Hall.

ADMINISTRATION

The Registrar supervises the arrangement of students' lessons, lectures, examinations, scholarships and concerted work. The Bursar deals with financial and office administration. The Lady Superintendent is concerned with the health and hygiene of students, the supervision of the domestic staff, the recommendation of lodgings and kindred matters.

Dramatic Training	Opera
Elocution	Orchestration
Ensemble (vocal or instrumental)	Piano Accompaniment
	Score Reading

There is a special course for the training of teachers towards the G.R.S.M. diploma.

It is the policy of the College to make students' timetables as varied and flexible as possible so as to meet the special needs of each individual. It is usual for students to take two practical subjects, in addition to theoretical work and various classes. Full-course students are given two or three individual lessons per week, which may be divided between their principal subjects, and include theoretical work.

There are regular lectures in Musical History, Musical Appreciation, Teaching Methods, including Aural Training and Dictation. The Orchestras, Wind Repertory, the Choral, Sight-singing and Choir-training classes, are available for suitable students.

All practical studies, and certain theoretical subjects, are examined and graded periodically. There are five grades, Grade V being the highest. Certain subjects—Composition, Conducting, and Ensemble-playing are examples—are for students who have reached an appropriate theoretical or practical grade. A student who gains the A.R.C.M. (Performers') Diploma passes at once into Grade IV in the subject taken. Students in Grade V are exempt from further examination except for prizes and special awards.

There are several Orchestral Concerts each term, and one Choral Concert. There are also regular Chamber Concerts and Students' Recitals. Students qualified to perform at concerts are recommended by their professors, and their items are included in concert programmes as far as possible.

The Opera Class and the Dramatic Training Class give frequent performances in the theatre, both of complete works and selected scenes. Students and friends may attend these, and the concerts above, so far as accommodation permits. Admission is free to all performances but tickets are required for some dates. Students also have opportunities of attending concerts outside the College, by the generosity of managers and other gifts of tickets.

FEES

The Entrance Examination Fee is £2 2s. and must be sent with the form of application.

The full-course fee is £21 per term, or £60 per annum (three terms) if paid in advance.

Extra fees : For one hour's extra lesson per week, £12 12s. 0d. per term, and other periods in proportion.

Students who have completed not less than three years may, if the Director approves, take a modified course at £12 12s. 0d. per term.

NOTE : From September, 1956, the fees chargeable to new entrants will be £25 per term, together with an entrance examination fee of £2 2s. 0d.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

Students must possess the physical and educational qualifications necessary for the studies they intend to pursue. They must give satisfactory references and undertake to attend the College for at least one year of three terms. They must pay the entrance and tuition fees as they become due.

The choice of professors rests absolutely with the Director, but students may express a preference if there are special reasons for it.
